

Massage Therapists' Pledge

I dedicate myself selflessly to fulfilling my calling to serve my patients.

I put my patients first and always place their interests above my own.

I utilize my knowledge, skills and professional judgment to actively benefit my patients and to safeguard them from harm.

I respect my patient's humanity and their moral right to be treated equally and fairly in receiving massage therapy care.

I am a responsible and accountable fiduciary of the public trust in me as a healthcare professional.

I commit myself to continuous learning and development of my knowledge and skills.

I commit myself to providing quality massage therapy care and advancing the practice of the profession.

I commit myself to maintaining and fostering the honor and dignity of my profession.

I commit to my best effort with sincerity and fidelity at all times.

I make this commitment as a healthcare professional to my patients, society, my profession and myself.
